

SPECIFICATION AMENDMENTS

In order to conform to the guidelines set forth by the examiner, kindly substitute the attached substitute specification for the specification as originally filed. For convenience, there is also submitted a copy of the amended specification showing the amendments in underline or strike out as required. No prohibited new matter has been introduced by these amendments as they relate only to the headings of the several sections of the specification: